PREFACE

T*his book, Sam. O. Salau's Words On Marble (Part 1), is a collection of My Best 101 Quotes on the social media platforms from 2009 till date. I called them the best 101 because they are the most retweeted on twitter, shared on facebook, and rebroadcasted on bbm, either with or without full credit.*

To those who retained the credits, I am grateful. To those who feel my names are not as important to them as the quotes, and so deleted the names before sharing, I still want to say thank you for appreciating my thoughts; that alone is enough encouragement to me.

Some of these quotes have been broadcasted by personalities of international repute (check my twitter handle @samosalau), and so have spread like wild fire. Great respect to such men who do not feel too big to identify with an upcoming star, I love you.

To all those who will read this book, I hope you will have some vital lessons to learn from it.

Thanks for reading my thoughts.

ACADEMICS & YOUR SPIRITUAL LIFE (SSHBS 002)
Contrary to popular belief, spirituality is no excuse for mediocrity. Dedication and commitment to the things of God does not enhance academic failure, it promotes academic excellence. Success for a Christian Student is defined as spiritual buoyancy and academic progression. You must be able to affect lives on campus and at the same time maintain a splendid academic performance.

The problem of academic excellence that exasperates Christian Students is the cause of their deeper problem of abstinence from fellowship activities on campus. Academic success has become the major reason for most Christian Students' estrangement from God. Those who get it are not in faith while those in faith seem not near it, no matter how hard they tried.

It is pathetic to see students who are fervent in the Spirit and burning for the Lord fail in their academics. They make great impacts in the ministry but fail to extend the impact into their academics. They teach others about the rules, guidelines and secrets of success but they are not successful themselves. They are victims of academic failure. This is pitiable and should be given immediate attention since it has given so many people a wrong impression about the Christian Faith and student-hood.

This book will help you balance both your academics and your spiritual life, and also give you principles that will make you excel in both with ease.

MAKE MONEY WHILE IN SCHOOL (SSHBS 003)

Only God can accurately estimate how much money flows around your campus on daily basis from one hand to the other in exchange of a needed good or service. At least, two of every ten students you meet on your campus have your money in their wallets! But unless you are doing something, none of it will flow towards your end.

If you are a student, have you ever thought about making money as a student while on campus? How possible is it to successfully combine your academics as a full time student, your spiritual life as a religious person, and still have time to make enough money to make ends meet while on campus and to build a great foundation for your financial life after leaving the four walls of your campus? But it is possible.

This book will open your eyes to the numerous wealth opportunities that abound all around you on your campus, and the potentials embedded on the inside of you to take advantage of these opportunities, to the advantage of your life. It is a book every student can not do without.

POWERFUL PRAYER POINTS & BIBLICAL PROMISES 4 STUDENTS (SSHBS 004)

Words are not cheap. Words can kill. Words can heal. Words can start wars and end wars. Words can make a man smile and they can make him weep. Words can create and can destroy. Words are powerful, especially when used rightly in prayers.

Jesus said words could move mountains if rightly used. The Bible teaches that life and death are in your words. So your words matter a lot. Your confession matters. God wants you to speak the right set of words so that He can change your life. "But if you have anything to say, go ahead. I want to hear it, for I am anxious to see you justified. (Job 33:32)"

The devil is also carefully waiting to catch the wrong set of words in your mouth so that he can put you in bondage. "You are snared by the words of your lips, you are caught by the speech of your out" (Prov. 6:2)

So you determine on whose side you fall by the kinds of words you speak. This is why you need to always confess positive things into your life with your own mouth when praying. This book is a collection of powerful words and prayer points with scriptural references that can change situation if confessed often. It will show you the power of prayers and positive confession.

HANDLING ACADEMIC FAILURE (SSHBS 005)

A wise man takes his time to learn both the secrets of failure and success. He learns the secrets of failure to avoid failing and that of success to succeed. The essence of this book is not to build a monument around your failure, but to teach you how to get the best from your failure so that your life can bounce back and move forward despite the failure.

Failure is not very palatable; it has dire consequences. You may be asked to reseat the examination, repeat the class, bag a carry over, asked to withdraw from school, or graduate with very poor and unsatisfactory grades. This is why most students detest failure, but some still fail anyway. Therefore, every student needs to learn how to handle failure so as to get the best out of it.

If you have ever failed before, the last time you failed is the last time you will ever fail again; the truth you will learn from this book will guarantee that. However, if you have never failed before, this book will guarantee that you maintain the record of a clean slate all your days as a student on campus. This is all you need to put academic failure in its right place, and keep achieving success all your days on campus.

BOOST YOUR G.P. (SSHBS 006)

The G.P., Grade Point as it is called, has become the cruel taskmaster on every campus. Most students are groaning under its grip. No matter how hard they try, they seem not to have yet discovered what to do to give it a rise as it keeps taking a downward surge at the end of every semester. This has constituted academic problems to so many students and has translated into emotional problems to so many others. Some even thinks it is a spiritual one. The G.P. has become the determinant of the most brilliant students. It is what separates the successful students from the unsuccessful one. So many even believes, contrary to reality though, that it is the difference between the hardworking students and the lazy ones.

The earth is governed by rules called natural laws. These rules work irrespective of location, race, religion and colour. As there are natural laws that govern the earth generally, so also there are natural laws that govern academics too, which most times are either not known to students, or known but not taken too serious. This is the core of students' problem with G.P. It is either because of something they need to do which they consciously or unconsciously are not doing, or something they need not do which they constantly find themselves doing. This is the essence of this book, to teach both of these, and to keep your G. P. ever soaring.

RUNNING A SUCCESSFUL YOUTH MINISTRY (SSHBS 007)

This is not just another book on leadership. It is a compilation of the things I have learnt about student leadership which I wished I had learnt earlier while on campus as a student leader. The purpose of this book is to correct the anomalies in student leadership and encourage the birth of a new breed of leadership on our campuses. It is to bring clarity to the issue of campus leadership, forewarning every leader ahead of time about the challenges of leadership and forearming them with needed facts, thereby assuring all student leaders of success.

Therefore, if you are a leader on your campus, this book is meant for you. Regardless of the level at which you exercise your leadership, be it in your class, department, faculty, hostel, dormitory, student union government, fellowship, or even in your room! All campus leaders must read this! As long as you have a measure of influence somewhere, and on someone, no matter how minute or how big, and you desire to exercise your influence in a better way, this book is written with you at the back of my mind.

SPREAD YOUR FAITH

(Taking Over Your Campus For The Lord) (SSHBS 009)

Soul winning is every Christian's responsibility. It is even more than a mere responsibility; it is a great privilege. We have been given the cherished honor to be partakers in the glorious task of bringing people into the eternal family of God. There is never a more significant cause to give one's life to.

But many will not for once open their mouths to preach the gospel to fellow students. If every Christian leaves the job of evangelism to some Christians, we will be too surprised to see that no Christian would do what any Christian could have done, and the whole world will perish right under our noses.

This book discusses why we must do it, why we don't want to do it, how to go about it and what happens if we refuse to do it. It is a book for all Christians.

HANDLING CAMPUS CHALLENGES (SSHBS 010)

This is the most comprehensive and detailed compilation on the challenges that students experience often on campus. It covers every area of a student's life, to the minute detail.

From socials, to religious, to academics, to relationship, to business, to health, to handling your emotions, handling difficult lecturers, handling troublesome roommates, and in fact, handling all handleable. It is indeed the student's companion.

LIVING A FIRST-CLASS LIFE WITH A THIRD-CLASS CERTIFICATE - (SSHBS 011)

Know this for sure; nothing catches God unawares. Whatever happens, He knows about it. Sad as it may sound, God knew afore-hand that you may not fare better than you did, and He is prepared ahead of time to help you. He is not disappointed in you. God looks at things differently than man does. This is because man is easily impressed by the wrong things in life, neglecting the things that matters. Men may write you off, but God won't: It is not in His nature: Adam and eve failed God's exam in the Garden of Eden and could have easily been written off by God. However, the whole Bible is a record of God's plan and effort to reverse that failure; that is God. He looks beyond the present into the future.

Succeeding in school is not the same as succeeding in life; likewise, failing out of school does not necessarily mean you have failed in life. A pass mark in the first does not guarantee a pass mark in the other, and a failure in the first does not guarantee a failure in the other. You may be passing out with a third-class result now, but this does not make you a third-class material. Every student is a first-class material, only that the field in which they excel differ. Those who excel in academic work are easily noticed and awarded first-class earlier than others. But this is not to say others cannot excel in other fields.

Starting college is a major transitional stage in one's life, but leaving college is a greater one. The day of convocation, which marks the end of this stage of your life coincidentally marks the beginning of another. It launches you forth into the larger world outside there; a world in which you have to find your own footing for yourself, a world which accommodates the survival of only the fittest. Such a world should not be entered unprepared for.

The convocation ceremony is a bridge between the artificial campus life and the real world. It is a link between the imaginary future students build for themselves while on campus, and the factual world outside there, where, irrespective of your desires, only what you deserve is all you get. You will soon be a graduate, and the whole world will rejoice with you for a job well done, whether you pass out, as it is commonly said, or you fail out, which nobody dares say! Everybody comes to rejoice with you, at least, for going through school successfully and not dropping out on the way. That makes you a graduate, and it is worth the celebration.

For you personally, if you must be sincere with yourself, the convocation day is always a day filled with both excitement and nervous apprehension. The convocation ceremony will soon be over. The music will soon fade. The dance will soon stop. Your guests will soon leave. The hall will soon be locked. And you will soon be left alone to do just one thing - decide what your fate will be! LOOK BEYOND SCHOOL: YOU WILL SOON BE A GRADUATE.

SECONDARY SCHOOL GRADUATES - (SSHBS 013)
How fast time flies! It seems like only yesterday when you started your first kindergarten class. Now you are graduating from secondary school and will soon be off to the higher institution. Then in another four years or so, you are ready to face the labour market.

This book is a collection of what higher institution undergraduates wished someone had told them when they were graduating from secondary schools. You are indeed fortunate to come across this. If I had this in my days, I probably would have done a lot better in the higher institution. Read it and pass it on to others. It will guarantee every reader a more successful stay in the higher institution.

Most adults like to dictate to teenagers how to live their lives. The essence of this book is not to do this, but to honestly let you learn from the past mistakes of your predecessors. This will save you from most of the stupid things we did ourselves, which we now secretly wish we had not done, and help you to know the things we did not do, which would have been our major priority, had we known better.

BOOST YOUR FAITH

(Becoming A Better Believer On Your Campus)- (SSHBS 015)

Growth is relevant to the spiritual as much as it is relevant to the physical. God desires growth from every living thing he has created. If God so much loves growth and progress that he gives every living thing the ability to grow, then he does not have a different agenda for his sons and daughter. The issue of spiritual growth is therefore one, which every Christian must understand, desire and acquire. It is very important that we grow as Christians. God is just as interested in our spiritual growth as he is in our salvation

All over the world, there are millions of good, faithful churchgoers, who though are saved, have not gone beyond the stage of salvation to the stage of maturity in the lord. Thousands of others who though profess to be Christian are not sure of their salvation and are uncertain of the level of their relationship with the lord. Even though some of these were brought up in Christian families and some have believed in him for years, this same problem still lurks in the corner of their heart.

The cause of this lack of assurance of salvation and inability to grow spiritually can be summed up in one word as the ignorance of the needed information. In this book, Sam. O. Salau discusses in details the five major keys needed for spiritual growth.
